the Panel received a summary financial and capital xpenditure performance report for the last 12 months. The Group's financial performance for the year at 196.5m shows an underspend of circa £440k against the 019/20 budget.  The underspend is largely the result of lower than budgeted staff costs - £3.5m less than budget. This is only artly offset by non-pay costs (including contracted and apital financing) that are £0.5m over budget. Pleasingly mome is also some £4.1m more than budgeted.  This significant improvement in performance has meant that the group has been able to top up general and armarked reserves to the tune of £7.7m. This means we not the year with our target 3% in general reserve plus 7.1m in earmarked and specific reserves.  This welcome improvement reflects the relative success of the cost reduction programme and the day to day trong budget management performance by directorates and operational teams.  The relation to capital the Group spent £10.1m against a 21m programme. The underspend largely reflects pending on the Niche records management programme where circa £8m of spend has just slipped over in	The Panel thanked the Force and Group staff for the improved financial performance.  Looking ahead the Panel will continue to closely monitor the underlying financial performance, the revenue reserves position and the demands of the capital programme.
the Group's financial performance for the year at 196.5m shows an underspend of circa £440k against the 019/20 budget.  The underspend is largely the result of lower than sudgeted staff costs - £3.5m less than budget. This is only partly offset by non-pay costs (including contracted and apital financing) that are £0.5m over budget. Pleasingly income is also some £4.1m more than budgeted.  This significant improvement in performance has meant that the group has been able to top up general and armarked reserves to the tune of £7.7m. This means we not the year with our target 3% in general reserve plus 7.1m in earmarked and specific reserves.  This welcome improvement reflects the relative success of the cost reduction programme and the day to day throng budget management performance by directorates and operational teams.  The relation to capital the Group spent £10.1m against a 21m programme. The underspend largely reflects pending on the Niche records management programme where circa £8m of spend has just slipped over in	performance.  Looking ahead the Panel will continue to closely monitor the underlying financial performance, the revenue reserves position and the demands of the capital
196.5m shows an underspend of circa £440k against the 019/20 budget.  the underspend is largely the result of lower than sudgeted staff costs - £3.5m less than budget. This is only partly offset by non-pay costs (including contracted and apital financing) that are £0.5m over budget. Pleasingly accome is also some £4.1m more than budgeted.  This significant improvement in performance has meant that the group has been able to top up general and armarked reserves to the tune of £7.7m. This means we not the year with our target 3% in general reserve plus 7.1m in earmarked and specific reserves.  This welcome improvement reflects the relative success of the cost reduction programme and the day to day strong budget management performance by directorates and operational teams.  The relation to capital the Group spent £10.1m against a 21m programme. The underspend largely reflects pending on the Niche records management programme where circa £8m of spend has just slipped over in	Looking ahead the Panel will continue to closely monitor the underlying financial performance, the revenue reserves position and the demands of the capital audgeted staff costs - £3.5m less than budget. This is only partly offset by non-pay costs (including contracted and apital financing) that are £0.5m over budget. Pleasingly income is also some £4.1m more than budgeted. This significant improvement in performance has meant that the group has been able to top up general and armarked reserves to the tune of £7.7m. This means we not the year with our target 3% in general reserve plus 7.1m in earmarked and specific reserves. This welcome improvement reflects the relative success of the cost reduction programme and the day to day throng budget management performance by directorates and operational teams.  The relation to capital the Group spent £10.1m against a 21m programme. The underspend largely reflects pending on the Niche records management programme where circa £8m of spend has just slipped over in	performance, the revenue reserves position and the demands of the capital hat the group has been able to top up general and armarked reserves to the tune of £7.7m. This means we not the year with our target 3% in general reserve plus 7.1m in earmarked and specific reserves.  This welcome improvement reflects the relative success of the cost reduction programme and the day to day throng budget management performance by directorates and operational teams.  The relation to capital the Group spent £10.1m against a 21m programme. The underspend largely reflects pending on the Niche records management programme where circa £8m of spend has just slipped over in
If the cost reduction programme and the day to day trong budget management performance by directorates and operational teams.  In relation to capital the Group spent £10.1m against a 21m programme. The underspend largely reflects pending on the Niche records management programme where circa £8m of spend has just slipped over in 21m programme. The underspend largely reflects pending on the Niche records management programme where circa £8m of spend has just slipped over in 020/21.
the Panel warmly welcomed the improving picture in the Group's financial position. In particular, the opportunity it provided to improve reserves. The contrast with recent ears was noted as was the improved budget management across the group's operations and the more onsistent reporting by the finance team.
he Panel received a verbal update on the impact of Covid- 9 on the Group's operations. Clearly there is significant hange in ways of working across operational and support eams. The implications for crime and law enforcement were discussed. The HR implications were also explored particularly in relation to the finance team.	The Panel will continue to monitor the impact of the current crisis on the financial position.
he financial consequences were also considered longside any additional Home Office funding.
the Panel received three reports from internal audit including two in draft form. It also received the year end	The Panel will continue to review internal audit reports.
i i i i i i i i i i i i i i i i i i i	nange in ways of working across operational and support tams. The implications for crime and law enforcement ere discussed. The HR implications were also explored articularly in relation to the finance team.  The financial consequences were also considered ongside any additional Home Office funding.  The Panel received three reports from internal audit

	The Panel welcomed this level of assurance.
External audit	The Panel received a letter from the external auditor explaining some of the pressures on the audit firms from regulators, staffing and market challenges and the potential implications for the audit timetable and fees. A verbal update on the changed year end reporting timetable was also received from the SCO Director of Finance.	The Panel will continue to monitor the impact of the current crisis and the wider regulatory changes on the audit market.
	The Panel welcomed the finance team's commitment to maintaining the original year end timetable and noted the contrast with earlier years.
Annual Governance Statement	The Panel received a near final draft AGS for the SCO. The Panel noted the additional content in relation to the impact of the current crisis and the consequential significant shift in the actions after the deferral of the Commissioner's election.  The Panel welcomed the clarity and readability of the AGS.  The Panel also received a verbal update on progress with	The Panel will review actions arising from the Annual Governance Statement.
	the Chief Constable's AGS and noted the impact of the current crisis on its content and production.
Strategic Risk Register	The Panel received an updated SCO risk register which included risks arsing from the current crisis. A verbal update on the Chief Constable's risk register was also received and noted.	The Panel will monitor the risk implications arising from the current crisis.

Alan Edwards ETAP Finance Panel Chair